Meanwhile the rain keeps on
Splashing down my window
I could cry for a soft warm sunset
And a clear night
Oh my, my, just we two with nothing to do
The next morning

Wish I could throw my books away
Go and lie on a beach somewhere
Let the sun and the warm, warm air
Drive the rain from my thoughts
Wish I could find a friend who would Stay by me
And she'd look so beautiful
Let her eyes and her warm, warm love
Drive the rain from my thoughts

Meanwhile the rain keeps on
Splashing down my window
I could cry for a soft warm sunset
And a clear night
But the rain keeps on
The rain keeps on
