The light in the crooner's life is an old torch song
Flaming up for his first loves -
Misty romancing and moonlighting dancing into dawn

"You are my sweet theme song
You linger when the spotlights fade
With my sweet theme song I've got it made

Just love me
Run to meet me when I come home
Take my feelings,
Show them a new day.
Make me say;
I will sing again
Just like the brown eyes of autumn years
Singing to the yellow moon
'The dawn is soon coming'
I will touch again
Dreams in the lonely glass at 4am
And walk onto the foggy street
The chance to meet a dream coming"
