You're beautiful
And I don't know if you know it
You've got murder in your smile
It kills me every time you show it

And I'm dangerous
Cause I made you forget
All the promises
That you had not broken yet

Chorus:
So please, don't fear to tread
Come take my hand
You must be the reason
Why the legion of angels in my head
Fired up their band
Come take my hand

You're mysterious
Yes, mystery turns me on
You've got me thinking
In a moment you could be gone

You drain my senses
I get lost in your glow
And I've got a wicked hand of my own
You're forcing me to show

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:
It would take a lifetime or two to forget you
It would take a lifetime or two
But why would I want to be free

Repeat Chorus
