hey you!
third from the back
are you a leader
or part of the pact
hey you!
third from the front
are you are a leader
or somebody's dunce
hey you
I'm thinking again
use all your strength to be worthy with friends
hey you
pardon myself
its time to wake up from this early death you choose
stand up
he breaks up the fight you choose color and packs that are white
stand up
don't worry about me
I'm just a kid with some anger to breed
hey you
I'm thinking again use all your strengths to be worthy with friends
hey you
pardon myself
its time to wake up from this early death you choose

is this your life?
to prey on someone's weakness I'm looking out
I'm searching for that boy I knew a blood drenched rd
your hatred throne be all you can be
"its the slogan you had learned
its getting harder I'm getting older"

be all you can be

its the slogan you had learned
