Something about tonight
We'll never get it right
And all along we're taking it slow
Taking it slow, taking it slow

Everything has changed
Ever since you went away
And all along we're taking it slow, taking it slow

Taking it slow
We'll never know
If everything we had was meant to go
We'll never know
If everything we had was meant to

I waited for your call
Set myself up to fall
And all along we're taking it slow
Taking it slow, taking it slow

And now your back again
Acting like you've always been
Here beside me taking it slow, taking it slow

Taking it slow
We'll never know
If everything we had was meant to go
We'll never know
If everything we had was meant to go

Do we do this one more time?
Another worthless line
Never say you loved and lost

Come around again
Is it better in the end
To never say you loved and lost?

Slow
We'll never know
If everything we had was meant to go
We'll never know

If everything we had was meant to go

Solitary night

A solitary light

Is shining through my bedroom window
