Goin' back to Texas
I've been away too long Don't know how I found myself so far away from home I've seen to much of the world and the world's seen enough of me
I ain't lost a dadgum thing in Nashville, Tennessee no baby

Tennessee won't ever see the likes of me ever again Goin' back to the Lone Star State where every one I meet's a friend.
Hey little brother, go tell your mother, I'll be drivin'
home tonight.
When I see that Texas line I know everything's gonna be alright
It's gonna be fine
It'll be okay. Yeah

How I miss those Texas girls, can't wait to see 'em again.
Goin' back to the wide open spaces where my heart has always been.
Tell little sister, I sure missed her, I'll be home by mornin' light.
When I see that Texas sky I know everything's gonna be alright.
It's gonna be fine
It'll be okay, Yeah
