Verse I

Little brown eyed girl
(Love letters)
Out on her front porch
(Got a Valentine)
Little blue eyed boy
(Hey little boy)
Comes over from next door
(Circle yes or no)
And she tells her daddy 'bout her little boyfriend
And daddy can only wonder and give her a grin
Oh what is love?

She's a teenage girl
(She's sweet sixteen)
On the telephone
(All night long)
He's a teenage boy
(He's so handsome)
Letter jacket on (Wearin' a senior ring)
Butterflies take her away as he asks her out
Won't somebody tell them what this is all about
Oh what is love?

Chorus:

What is love?
So many ways you can describe it
What is love?
Well love is real you can't deny it
It can only be sent from up above
Can you answer the question, what is love?

Verse II:

She's a beautiful bride
(Flowers in her hair)
As she says I do
(Always and forever)
He's a handsome groom
(She's his only one)
He says I do too
(Ring on her finger)

As they walk down the aisle hand in hand together
We've seen it a million times, will it last forever
Oh what is love?

She's a little old lady
(She's my grandma)
In a rockin' chair
(She's still so pretty)
A gray headed man
(My grandpa)
They make quite a pair
(How he still loves her)
And they wonder how they made it down through all the years
Through the good times, the bad times, happiness and tears
Oh what is love?

Repeat Chorus
