I wanna live, live, live
In that large, large house above
I wanna live, live, live
In that large, large house above

No more taxes
No more tags
I can sit back and relax
I wanna live, live, live
In that large, large house above

I wanna live, live, live
In that large, large house above
I wanna live, live, live
In that large, large house above

Through those acres of sky
I'll go walking by and by
I wanna live, live, live
In that large, large house above

I wanna live, live, live
In that large, large house above
I wanna live, live, live
In that large, large house above

No more time clock to punch
I can take all day for lunch
I wanna live, live, live
In that large, large house above
