Now you may never be on a Maybelline commercial
But you always let me know when you got some purple
See, I can't let you walk away, I can't let you walk away
You need to light one with me

So you could be my drug dealer, girl
So you could be my drug dealer, girl
So you could be, be, be my drug dealer, girl
So you could be my drug dealer, girl

You might never sell enough of this stuff to move off your street
But every time I call you let me light one up for free
I'm sure that you're never ever gonna be a runway model
But you can make a bomb ass piece out of a water bottle

And when you count my money
You look so sexy to me
And it might sound funny
But I would by a O-Z
Just to get you in my bed room

Drug dealer, girl
So you could be my drug dealer, girl
So you could be, be, be my drug dealer, girl
So you could be my drug dealer, girl

Something 'bout the way that you weigh and bag my eighthers
You even gave me my own number to put in your pager
I still never seen you cough when you hit the bong
See, gimme that shit that helps me write my songs

And when you count my money
You look so sexy to me
And it might sound funny
But I would by a O-Z
Just to get you in my bed room

Drug dealer, girl

So you could be my drug dealer, girl
So you could be, be, be my drug dealer, girl
So you could be my drug dealer, girl

(Girlfriend)
You should be my girlfriend
(Girlfriend)
My drug dealer and my
(Girlfriend)
You should be my girl

(Girlfriend)
Puff it, pass it, push it, pedal it
(Girlfriend)
Puff it, pass it, push it, pedal it

(Girlfriend)
Puff it, pass it, push it, pedal it
Puff it, pass it, push it, push it

(Drug dealer, girl)
Puff it, pass it, push it, pedal it
(Drug dealer, girl)
Puff it, pass it, push it, pedal it

(Drug dealer, girl)
Puff it, pass it, push it, pedal it
(Drug dealer, girl)
Puff it, pass it, push it, pedal it

You may never be on a Maybelline commercial

You need to light one with me
