Sometimes my mind wanders
Away from me
I know, I light my dutchie up, puff
Maybe one day I'll fly

Who knows, who knows, who knows?
(I know)
Who knows?
(I know)

I wish that I could be what I want to
I wish that I would do what I don't do
I need a miracle, I hope I come through
I'm tryna work it out, I need a jump soon

'Cause I've about had me enough of not havin'
Enough slacking and stuff, mamma on the phone
Not bragging and nothin' 'cause her son
Ain't really got shit happenin' much

Saw my bank account like where was all the O's at?
Hit the club like where was all the hoes at?
In a lil' change you gon' see how shit change
You gon' be up in the crib like where was all her clothes at?

An' ask yo' girl she know it's easy to say no
To a nigga that's broke
But somebody with doe, that got a lil' mo'
Shit, ionno

Sometimes my mind wanders
Away from me
I know I light my dutchie up, puff
Maybe one day I'll fly

Who knows, who knows, who knows?
(I know)
Who knows
(I know)

And I always had drive gets

Where I'm goin' if I ain't got a ride
And when they ask, do you do what you love?
I'ma say I do if I ain't got a bride

And I always carry faith like big
Tryna do it big so my crib on cribs
And my girl ain't gotta worry 'bout shit
'Cause our world is gon' be the shit

So she can tell her momma I'ma keeper
I am a dreamer, I coulda been a king, huh
I'ma put my hands together like in applaud
Look upward, like whaddup, Lord?

Huh, I know if you try to you could turn
These gray skies back to sky blue
It was made for the gift of gold like a drive through Give us opportunity and see what we do with it

Sometimes my mind wanders
Away from me
I know I light my dutchie up, puff
Maybe one day I'll fly

Who knows, who knows, who knows?
(I know)
Who knows?
(I know)

I know
I know
