i found some peace of mind
in things that drive me crazy you're the first, the worst offender plus you're enough to fill this page and bleed onto the next full of things that i need off my chest

speak to me now
and tell me what you need
you want her to leave
cause your love life's lacking
i got a picture on my wall
she knows all the words i sing you don't even know what it feels like to need
one person this much
cause you're always running from them i hate this so much
what should i do
i'll forget you

you don't care if you offend her plus you're enough to kill

even know the path is undecided i'll walk back if i have to and all stay there for so long untill i start to hear you screaming you know i do what i want to

i want to

i got her picture on my wall
