I can be Jesus, I can be Buddha
I can be Krishna, I can be anybody I want to be...

I can be a prophet, I can be a seer
I can be a church, never live in fear
I can be privileged, I can be a king
I can be royalty, I can grow wings

I'm a soldier of love, the keeper of the light
I'm a soldier of love, the keeper of the light

I can be a priest, I can be a lord
I can be a guru, and never be bored
I can be a maji. I can be the Light
I can be knowing, I can make it right

I'm a soldier of love, the keeper of the light
I'm a soldier of love, the keeper of the light

I can be a savior, I can be Zeus
I can be a shaman, and un-tie my noose
I can be the sun. I can be Chi
I can be the Moon, and make your eyes see

I'm a soldier of love, the keeper of the light
I'm a soldier of love, the keeper of the light
