Where have you gone
In the midst of everything
You've gone away
I need you to stay

Where have you gone?
My chosen one?
My work has just begun

You cry out that you need me
But quickly I see
That you were the one who left me

Chorus:
Where have you gone?
You are the one that I need
Where have you gone?
You are the one that I need

Where have you gone?
You are the one that I need
Where have you gone?
You are the one that I need

You're seeking refuge in worldly things
Shelter is under my wings
Just listen to my words
I'll make you learn that I deserve

You're learning the hard way
And in the end
You're gonna wish you would have stayed

"Shizam that's good punk"
