(Verse 1)

You like to make believe, that Iâ'm a bad person
But nothing that I say could ever be worse than the truth
So Iâ'm begging you, just to leave it alone.
Iâ'm turning this wreck around; best believe Iâ'll come home.

(Verse 2)

I am the one, the what the where and the now, Iâ'm the sole individual, taught everyone how
To weave lies out of fake ties,
To hold your breath, and not to ask why.
But no one believes me, and Iâ'm here to make you see.
The Angel in Me.

(Chorus)

Don't bother me with shallow alibis,
Goodbye to Sunny Skies,

I cant put the blame on my own life,
No not anymore cuz I swear Iâ've changed.
I swear Iâ'm not the same.
And let me make it clear,
That I wont be the one to pick you up even when you fall,
Youâ'll always be the one on my shelf, and ill never dust you off.

(Breakdown)

With my eyes sewn shut, I can't help see clouds
around me,
And now that the day has come, you have my sympathy.
The Angel in Me.

(Chorus)

With Heaven above, Please give me something to die for.
I can barely breathe, when were all at war, I fight again

someday.
