Just the slightest touch of you
Sends my passion rushing through
And baby you can always count on me
Because you dance around my fantasy

And when the weekend people
Wanna knock you down
Remember we all fly
To higher ground

REFRAIN:
We're one step to heaven
We can stop the clock at seven
I can find a new one step to heaven
I am by your side

We're one step to heaven
We can stop the clock at seven
I can find a new one step to heaven
Baby, side by side

Now it's balance taken perfect control of me
Make your love's the only thing I need
Oh let the world around us just fall apart
Oh baby we can make it heaven heart to heart

We're one step to heaven
We can stop the clock at seven
I can find a new one step to heaven
I am by your side

We're one step to heaven
We can stop the clock at seven
I can find a new one step to heaven
Baby, side by side

Stop the clock at seven
I am by your side

We're one step to heaven
We can stop the clock at seven
I can find a new one step to heaven

Baby, side by side

We're one step to heaven
We can stop the clock at seven
I can find a new one step to heaven
I am by your side

We're one step to heaven
We can stop the clock at seven
I can find a new one step to heaven
Baby, side by side

We're one step to heaven
We can stop the clock at seven
I can find a new one step to heaven
I am by your side
