the reason that i have been so hard on you. i could'nt
find the right truth of blooms.play your journeys of all above.grey nights of all along.

change my place.feel the right way.move to another place,from getting away.a quiet place.to a place to continue.

forgive all the thoughts.i've been such a frightened
ordinary girl,you have ever seen.climb on the top of the tree.look forward to me.

change my place.feel the right way.move to another place,from getting away.a quiet place.to a place to continue.

the reason that i have been so hard on you. i could'nt
find the right truth of blooms.play your
journeys of all above.grey nights of all along.

i tried to play my song on my very own.did i ever did something wrong along.to a place to continue.

change my place.feel the right way.move to another place,from getting away.a quiet place.to a place to continue.

the reason that i have been so hard on you. i could'nt
find the right truth of blooms.play your
journeys of all above.grey nights of all along.

forgive all the thoughts.i've been such a frightened
ordinary girl,you have ever seen.climb on the top of the tree.look forward to me.

change my place.feel the right way.move to another place,from getting away.a quiet place.to a place to
continue.

oh,a place to continue.
