You started up first day
At seven or maybe eight You crashed in to my world with a boom
You came over as a guest I said i like you and i confess about ten o'clock i was making fun of you You stayed for a while Then left with a smile
But at least i made you happy you made me happy too its kinda cheezy to say but

You;re everything i want
When I'm with you i overheard and stop you're anything that fits my love and I'll never replace you cause I'll never find love so true its only been three days You're playing the waiting game and acting cool when we're not together i drove you home from school When I'm with you i feel so tool i wish this feeling would last forever

And i stare into space
My heart starts to race
At least I've got your picture
You gave me yesterday It's kinda cheezy to say but

When I'm with you i overheard and stop
you're anything that fits my love
And I'll never replace you
Cause I'll never find love so true

Looking back at us
Two years and we're going strong they say time flys when you're having fun I never wanna be alone again no no

No, you're everything i want
When I'm with you i overheard and stop
you're everything i want
and I'll never replace you Cause I'll never find love that's so true
