I wish
With all my heart
That you would stay...
And I've never felt this way
But here, today, I need to say...

You're in the past
We've all grown up
Without your help, though
I never would've thought
That I could be whatever,
Beyond my hopes and dreams
But you need to know
I'm gonna go my own way...

I guess you should've seen it coming
We've both made mistakes back then
But ever since we've been together
I've learned from all of them
We'll always be together
Yeah, no matter what!
But if you listen to your heart,
You can tell them what you're not... !

You're in the past

We've all grown up
Without your help, though
I never would've thought
That I could be whatever,
Beyond my hopes and dreams
But you need to know
I'm gonna go my own way...

We've both been made fun of,
Had stops on our way!
But if we fight together,
We'll make it through some day!

You're in the past
We've all grown up

Without your help, though
I never would've thought
That I could be whatever,
Beyond my hopes and dreams
But you need to know
I'm gonna go my own way...

Can't believe what's happened
Through the years...
But we knew someday
I'd have to go my own way...
