So I might slip again,
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good

I look around me
How did I get here?
Not part of my plan
I ended up in a situation
Wasn't in my hands

I think about it
When I wanna give up
How to keep on going
How to keep my chin up
Somehow I know it
I'm not gonna give up
Never gonna give up

So I might slip again,
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good
Trying to be my best
When I fall in some mess
Pick myself up again
I'm still good

I'm still good,
I'm still good

When days are like that
And I can't shake 'em
It's weighing on my mind
So I'm just saying
I'm only human

Life gets you down sometimes

I think about it
When I wanna give up
How to keep on going
How to keep my chin up
Somehow I know it
I'm not gonna give up
Never gonna give up

So I might slip again,
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good
Trying to be my best
When I fall in some mess
Pick myself up again
I'm still good

So I might slip again,
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good
Trying to be my best
Pick myself up again
I'm still good

Life puts up a fight with me
But I can take on anything
I'm gonna make it real, this dream I believe in

I think about it
When I wanna give up
How to keep on going
How to keep my chin up
Somehow I know it
I'm not gonna give up
Never gonna give up

So I might slip again,
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good
Trying to be my best

When I fall in some mess
Pick myself up again
I'm still good

So I might slip again,
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good

Trying to be my best
Pick myself up again
I'm still good

I'm still good
Pick myself up again
I'm still good
I'm still, I'm still good
