chorus:

I love to smell the ocean breeze,
and feel the cold water, the feeling of the sand between
my toes goes unwritten and the sunset reflecting' all the colours of the rainbow off the water.

The way fish swim around my legs like a carousel, picking up pretty sea shells, sitting on the high rocks just to watch the sun go down, making' sandcastles and all that stuff.

chorus:

I love to smell the ocean breeze,
and feel the cold water, the feeling of the sand
between
my toes goes unwritten and the sunset reflecting' all
the colors of the rainbow off the water.

Seeing the fish under the water is really cool and walking along the water line, but most of all I love to smell the ocean breeze.

chorus:

I love to smell the ocean breeze,
and feel the cold water, the feeling of the sand
between
my toes goes unwritten and the sunset reflecting' all
the colors of the rainbow off the water.
