I'm so enraptured by the thought of yesterday
You and me all alone in a quiet empty place
I close my eyes and pray this magic never ends
I rewind in my mind so I feel your touch again

I don't know what to do
But I know that it feels so right
And the way that you move keeps me going through the night.

And it feels like flying
And it feels so exciting
I don't know what to do
But I know that it feels so right

[Chorus]
So in love
When we're together
So in love
And I lose control
So in love
When you hold me tight and I look into your eyes

I dedicate my love to you and no one else
You have captured my heart like a shadow in the dark

I don't know what to do
But I know that it feels so right
And the way that you move keeps me going through the night.

And it feels like flying
And it feels so exciting
I don't know what to do
But I know that it feels so right

So in love
When were together
So in love
And I lose control
So in love

When you hold me tight and I look into your eyes
