(Chorus & 1st verse)

She could be a typical Canadian girl
Blond-haired, blue-eyed beauty
She could be the coolest one the-ere
But she is not all people thought to be

Yeah

She could be rude, she could be tough
She could tease you 'bout crazy stuff
She will hurt, and might fight
And she could get others on her side

(Chorus)

She could be a typical Canadian girl
Blond-haired, blue-eyed beauty
She could be the coolest one the-ere
But she is not all people thought to be

You'll realize, and she'll see
You two were made to be fre-hends
She won't hurt and you'll be happy
That this is amazingly so not the end

She could be a typical Canadian girl
Blond-haired, blue-eyed beauty...

She could be the coolest one the-ere
But she is not all people thought to be

(Chorus-x2)(On 2-slow down, stop on last line)

She could be a typical Canadian girl
Blond-haired, blue-eyed beauty
She could be the coolest one the-ere
But she is not all people thought to be
