He's carving out his moment in the sun
He's carving out scars in his arms
And only for one moment in the sun
Only to feel so alive
The QB has got an addiction
(your addiction)
He's counting stars in the sky
(for your eviction)
He's giving it all that he's got
He's carving our initials in the wall
He's carving out stars in his eyes
He's finally found his moment in the sun
He's colorless sound the alarms
She's so into you
But you won't get up
She's so into you
But you won't wake up
She'll hold it for you
But it won't stay up
She's so into you
