Remember the time I couldn't speak, everybody heard
The pin didn't drop it came and crashed down
Then there was the time I couldn't walk, everybody laughed
So entertaining was this breakdown

Turn and face the walls
I'm only drinking
Eyes to the floor
I'm merely sinking

Remember the time when I couldn't see
Blind as a bat for drink and easy laughs
A terrible time but keep it in mind
You can't tell your friends man 'cause, 'cause this shit is mine

Turn and face the wall
I'm only drinking
Eyes to the floor
I'm merely sinking
So leave me alone

And why does it have to get like this?
It always has to get like this Well, I never meant to get like this Every night

Turn and face the walls
I'm only drinking
Eyes to the floor
I'm merely sinking
