The star in the window took my place for a while
But I know that I'm still in your heart
My place at the table has been empty for so long
But soon I'll be ready to start

So put another chair at the table
Set another place there for me
I know that you've been blue
And you have missed me too
But now I'm coming home to you, my dear
So put another chair at the table
Put another chair there for me

Put another chair at the table
Set another place there for me
I know that you've been blue
And you have missed me too
But now I'm coming home to you, my dear
Put another chair at the table
Put another chair there for me

The time will soon be here
When I'll be standing there
Right back where I belong
So put another chair at the table
Put another chair there for me
