The art of blowing holes in a heart
Are what keeps me going
I need another love

And it's time you noticed me
It's time you noticed me
It's time you noticed me
It's time you noticed me
It's time, it's time, it's time, it's time
The soft showing, it can be as hard
As rocks and stones
And I need another love

And it's time you noticed me
It's time you noticed me
It's time you noticed me
It's time you noticed me
It's time, it's time, it's time, it's time
