Welcome to the future,
claude harry on the beat.

I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man.

We want the world, in the palm of hands
We paint the picture, but nigga's don't understand, why
we can't be seen.

I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man.

Call me invisible man, so original man.
when they say my shit flop,go get my digital scan.
The invisible hand, the invisible neck.
and no we musn't forget, the invisible sex.
we spend invisible money,making visible bets.
Don't tell me how you gone cash those invisible cheaques.
With your invisble gangs,and they're invisible sex.
And your runnin round bustin' up invisible text.
And these invisible balla's,with they're invisible jets.
livin a hell of a life and die a miserbale death.
I dont' lie for nothing you see i live for my rep.
and me i work so hard see my invisible sweat.
See this invisible life, with my invisible dreams I hope
I'm living it right,
I might be blind today, do the invisible sights,
But since skys te limit, i see invisible heights.

We want the world, in the palm of hands
We paint the picture, but nigga's don't understand, why
we can't be seen.

I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man,I'm in visible man.

We fight invisible wars, driving visible cause.

We taking visible beatings, which makes invisible scars.
Live in invisible jails, with invisible bars
So many innocent men, Called the invisible charge.
We think we living it large, cos we live for the day,
but we don't live for tomorrow
You see we living our part, getting invisible pay, for my invisible job.
You can't ignore like its just a facade, that means,
everything you see it aint really there so its just a facade
Which means everything you see that is visible yours, ain't really meant to be yours, and its simply because,

The invisible man, he ain't original man.
he's just a carbon copy, of a physical man.
and everything they do, which is original man they just follow the blue print and they did it again.

We want the world, in the palm of hands
We paint the picture, but nigga's don't understand, why we can't be seen.

I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man.

You see you invisible rappers, with your invisible dough
Poppin visible bottles, with invisible hoes,
In invisible clubs, you invisible thugs.
Shootin visible guns, and sellin visible drugs.
Now we can talk about money if you wish
Like how we walk around with house money on our wrist.
And some say we should our money where we piss
Cos when its all said done i guess we all full of shit.

We want the world, in the palm of hands
We paint the picture, but nigga's don't understand, why we can't be seen.

I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man,
I'm in visible man, I'm in visible man.

thankyou to jae for adding these lyrics.
