we were walkin downtown
my favorite part of town [walking downtown]
we were walkin downtown
[walking downtown]

through the night
we were waiting for a sign
maybe rendered in the darkened sky

drawn by imaginary lines
connectig radiant points of light [please don't go]

'cause you showed up
with your hair down
i might not sleep tonight

we were walkin downtown
my favorite part of town
[walking downtown]
we were walkin downtown
my favorite part of town
[walking downtown]
lift your gaze
from the pavement
from the streets
that we've crossed a thousand times before

dry your eyes
there are birds singing on lamp posts they don't know what all your crying's for [please don't go]

and i'm sure that i've not seen
the christmas lights this bright before we were walking downtown

[walking downtown]
