Verse 1

Holding on to the nightmare
Of the pain i cant compare
Took my life into ur hands
And made it all dissappear

Verse 2

I lie alone here
In my blood and covered in tears
Needing to see the faces again
Need to bring them to and end

Chorus

Watching over me
Keeping close to me
The only eyes where i can see the revenge i need to be complete

Verse 3

I leave you begging and wondering
I leave you dead and with nothing
Can never forget all of the pain
That drove me to my grave

Repeat Chorus

Verse 4

Revenge is running through my veins
Revenge drove me from my grave
Revenge is the pill to drown my pain
Revenge is driving me insane
