it happened then, it happens now they let you in, they let you down and its feels like, we cant get out and it feels like, hell...

i think im safer in an airplane, i think im safer with my lungs full of smoke i think im safer on the jet way, than a world without hope the day came in, the day went out and not a bit of peace was spoken about and it feels like, a suicidal world

and it feels like, hell...

i think im safer in an airplane,
i think im safer if i run through the streets
i think im safer on the jetway, than a world without peace oh, my arms will stretch out when they've had enough oh, when they're tired of holding up us i think im safer on an airplane, i think im safer in the sky up above,

i think on safer on the jetway, than a world without..

i think im safer on an airplane,
i think im safer in the sky up above
i think on safer on the jetway, than a world without love.
