"The Change in You"

I was wrong to make a country club of my affection
Subjective love for those of my selection
But now she's found someone to love her more than I ever could
You look much better when you smiled
You've been down for quite awhile
Amazed by the change in you
Much that I still won't admit to
What brought about the words in me
Now sees the best in everything

I was wrong to make a country club of my affection
Subjective love for those of my selection
But now she's found someone to love her more than I ever could
You look much better when you smiled
You've been down for quite awhile
Amazed by the change in you
Much that I still won't admit to
What brought about the words in me
Now sees the best in everything

You look much better when you smiled
You've been down for quite awhile
Amazed by the change in you
Much that I still won't admit to
