Don't hold your head too high,
And taking off the ground.
But then come back again...
You gotta look into the sky,
But when will you be found?
But then come back again...

Be a magnet in diguise.
Steal those greedy eyes.
All the lows and all the highs,
We all come back again.

Try and get me,
Everyone knows that you love me.
If we argue,
We're going back to the same place we started.
Try and get me,
Everyone knows that you love me.
If we argue,
We're going back to the same place we started.
And then come back again...

If you run before you crawl,
You'll miss the time to grow.
But then come back again...
Is this something to solve?
You'll just never know.
But then come back again...

Be a magnet in diguise.
Steal those greedy eyes.
All the lows and all the highs,
Oh, we all come back again.

Try and get me,
Everyone knows that you love me.
If we argue,
We're going back to the same place we started.
Try and get me,
Everyone knows that you love me.
If we argue,
We're going back to the same place we started.

And then come back again...

Everytime I cry,
I try to change myself.
Everytime I cry,
I cry...

Be a magnet in disguise.
Steal those greedy eyes.
All the lows and all the highs,
We all come back again.

Try and get me,
Everyone knows that you love me.
If we argue,
We're going back to the same place we started.
Try and get me,
Everyone knows that you love me.
If we argue,
We're going back to the same place we started.
And then come back again...

Come back, come back, come back
Come back again
Then come back, come back, come back
Come back again
Then come back, come back, come back
Come back, come back, come back
Again
