we didn't even know you but we know what your family must be going through cause theres millions like them everyday that cant understand the suffering and the pain

so untimely
its so unfair
but your memory lives on and we always care
we'll always care

you showed us that everything you hold so dear can be taken away all too soon and you were no exception to the rule but we lost you that sunny afternoon

and we will always care
we'll see you there you showed us how precious life is you made us want to live it to the fullest

but we know we'll see you when we get there

but your memory lives on and we always care
