Mind's Eye
"Unreal World"

Welcome to this!

Daybreak, miles away
Don't know what I've done again
Can't be the same as before
No wait, disgrace
But I don't see a hurting face
Release me once and for all

I'm alone, won't you help me?
Trapped inside my unreal world

Unchained, free again
Lock away those darkened days
Make my return from the fall
No time, to decide
Erase the fiction from my mind
Invite the future to call

I'm alive, won't you help me?
Trapped inside my unreal world
I don't know what is happening
All alone, in this unreal world

No change, back again
To think that I could ever win
This toxin rage will go on
Will go onâ€¦

I'm alone, won't you help me?
Trapped inside my unreal world
I don't know what is happening
All alone, in my unreal world
I'll survive, this unreal world
