Emptiness inside, don't you understand
Pain haunts me tonight, won't you take my hand
Silent I lie still, scared by what is me
Why hang on to this, let me go:

You can't hide from your mistakes
Cause they'll hunt you down anywhere
Wipe that cold smile off your face
Cause they'll hunt you down anyway

Angels hear my cries, but you so selfishly keep me alive
Say, what's wrong or right?
Who says when it's time?
Silent I lie still, nothing left of me
I ask one last thing, help me go:

You can't hide from your mistakes
Cause they'll hunt you down anywhere
Wipe that cold smile off your face
As they'll hunt you down anywhere

You can't hide from your mistakes
Cause they'll hunt you down anywhere
Wipe that cold smile off your face
As they'll hunt you down anywhere
