I thought you were my maker
I thought you were my friend
Your smile met every other
Your life was pure decent

Inside, you're mine
Control had taken over me
You call, I fall
That was and is no more
So let it go

My heart it bleeds for you inside
My heart it bleeds for you child

I thought you were my lover
On you I could depend
Been treated like no other
My life proved second best

Inside, you're mine
Control had taken over me
You call, I fall
Your secrets are no more
So let it go

My heart it bleeds for you inside
My heart it bleeds for you child
My heart it bleeds for you inside
My heart it bleeds for you child

So let it go

My heart it bleeds for you inside
My heart it bleeds for you child
My heart it bleeds for you inside
My heart it bleeds for you child
