Endless search for reason
Days of non believing
Myself falling into me
Thought you held no secrets
Thought that you weren't keeping
Anything so far away

You laughed through this world
Forever dreaming, a child like anyone

Now you're ten miles high
Can't believe you died
Can't believe you tried
Searching for the sun
Everything you've done
Dragged of from the past
Nothin' meant to last
Somehow found a way
Of getting to you child
Can't believe you tried

Have no way of knowing
Hard to fight this feeling
You took everything I had
Just you rest for me now
Eternally in peace now
Meet you someday, somewhere

You laughed through this world
Forever dreaming
Why you and not anyone?

Now you're ten miles high
Can't believe you died
Can't believe you tried
Searching for the sun
Everything you've done
Dragged of from the past
Nothin' meant to last
Somehow found a way

Of getting to you child
Can't believe you tried

You laughed through this world
Forever dreaming
Why you and not anyone?

Now you're ten miles
You must be ten miles high
Can't believe you died
Can't believe you tried
Searching for the sun
Way back into you
Nothing I can say

Can't believe you died

Can't believe it
