Take me now into your arms
And show one last time
You are and where
More than night and day
Your strenght could
Take my pain away
But here it is

We stand, we fall
Dry your eyes now and save
All your tears tonight
We stand like
Thousands gone before
Still I'll rise, so save
All your tears tonight

It's not the way
That the end draws near
It's not the way
I can evade my fear
So I'm with you more each day
I'll sleep though I'm not far away
But here it is

We stand, we fall
Dry your eyes now and save
All your tears tonight
We stand like
Thousands gone before
Still I'll rise, so save
All your tears tonight

We stand, we fall tonight:
