Can I take your picture or write you down?
I watch you move without a sound
All I gave you now all I've lost
It's all the pain that it has caused
It's every moment we've forgotten
All the words we've left unsaid
It's the quiet time that I spend alone
With you inside my head

What else can I give you?
What else can I say?
Oh I cannot change tomorrow
Without you here today
It's so damn hard to finally say
Mistakes I knew I made
I'd change them if I could
You wouldn't let me if I would
And I miss that

I want to tell you how I feel
Many moons since I've felt real
Like a child with no patience
All our conversations

Clock reads eleven: eleven
Make a wish you say
But I've wished so many God damn times
This pain would go away
Take it away
Take it away from me

So can I take your picture or write you down?
I see you move without a sound
It's all I gave you now all I've lost
It's all the pain that it has caused
It's every moment we've
All the words we've left unsaid
It's the quiet time that I spend alone
With you inside my head

IÃfÂçâ,¬Â™ ll miss that

I want to tell you how I feel
Many moons since IÃfÂçâ,¬Â™ ve felt real
Like a child with no patience
All our conversations

Clock reads eleven: eleven
Make a wish you say
But IÃfÂçâ,¬Â™ ve wished so many God damn times
This pain would go away
Take it away
Take it away from me

Have you forgotten?
Have you forgotten
Forgotten me baby?
Have you forgotten?
Have you forgotten
Forgotten me

Seasons change IÃfÂçâ,¬Â™ m leaving here
A suitcase by my side
With no hope left to cling to
ItÃfÂçâ,¬Â™ s not easy when itÃfÂçâ,¬Â™ s over
ItÃfÂçâ,¬Â™ s easy to ask why
But IÃfÂçâ,¬Â™ m tired now and broken down with nothing left to try
Take it away
Take it away from me

Have you forgotten?
Have you forgotten
Forgotten me?
