Tell it all
Tell it all
Who's listening now?
You hit a wall
Gonna fall
And don't even know how
You seem to lost your head
When you said what you said

Give it up
Give it up
Lay it all on the line
Tell the truth
Execute
And you'll be doing just fine
You've seem to lost your way brother
Day after day

Tell me what you're thinking when you
throw this all away
Tell me how you lay your head down in the bed that you have made

Bring me down
Steal your crown
Call your bluff
We've had enough
I hate to say
It's not okay
Listening to you today
I hope you know
Here it goes
Throw it all away
And that's the price you pay (x2)

Tell me why
Tell me why
I'm thinking today
What a waste
Bitter taste
And will not go away
It's just a lesson learned

Another look of concern

Play the game

Play the game

You're running away

And every time another line

Another fucking charade

When you do what you do

This time brother we're through

Tell me what you're thinking when you
throw this all away

Tell me how you lay your head down in the bed that you
have made

Bring me down

Steal your crown

Call your bluff

We've had enough

I hate to say

It's not okay

Listening to you today

I hope you know

Here it goes

Throw it all away

And that's the price you pay (x4)
