Lovers in love would cross the mountains and seas /
They'll reach for the stars, and they'll fall to their knees

And I wonder, baby I wonder

A promise a kiss and a warm summer breeze They speak from the heart and say thank you and please

And I wonder, Yeah baby I wonder

What kind of world this would be if all of their hope and sympathy / Could sink into all of us like love or gravity

Thoughts of forever, a thousand a day / They believe in tomorrow and get carried away

And I wonder, baby I wonder

Always something to do, always something to say /
They dream for each other, love's funny that way

And I wonder, Yeah baby I wonder

sympathy / Could sink into all of us like love or gravity

I wonder
