It's out of place this heart of mine / Always hits me around this time Through window panes and moonlit skies / This gets harder every night

You Said / Why / Do you have to leave tonight? / Can't we make a long goodbye?
You Said / My / My heart is sick and tired / Of making love across the miles Wish away the morning light / Because the stars are out tonight

This serenade this work of art / These promises I know by heart
But words can fade from the very start / Sometimes I feel so far apart

You Said / Why / Do you have to leave tonight? / Can't
we make a long goodbye?
You Said / My / My heart is sick and tired / Of making
love across the miles Wish away the morning light / Keep this distance out of sight Because the stars are out tonight
