"Destructive Patterns"

Visit "Destructive Patterns" on MotoLyrics.com

Weakness, fault, defiance, slander of all kinds
Unsubmissive servant foolishness refined
Do not be conformed, impure in every way
Look for Christ the Savior let him lead the way
His grace is sufficient for you, his power made
Perfect through your weakness, boast about the Lord
For Christ's sake take delight in your weakness
The weak he chose to shame the strong, the foolish
To shame the wise, greater is he that lives in you
Than the world that had him crucified
Destructive Patterns, out of your hopeless mind
Seek God the Father and leave your past behind
