Far away from shining like my Lord
Robbing God for all his grace
Reaching out in bloodied grasp I know
Without his warm embrace I stand alone
Calling out with all my heart His Song
Of Sacred Consciousness for everyone
Born again not from the womb but fire
I'm not alone anymore
He's my wall, My strength, My fortress,
My rock, My sacrifice
By his hands and feet are hung for me
He gave His - He gave His life
Driven rusty nails that pierced him
Javelin stuck into his side
Hollow shell a man called Jesus
I give My - I give My life
He's my wall, My strength, My fortress,
My rock, My sacrifice
Jesus Lord I hear You calling
I give My - I give My life
