Voice of Disgust
Speaks of vain intolerance
To children taught to kneel and pray
Doctors pulling legs and arms
Piece by piece
Young mothers problem solved away
How can this be
In a perfect world
Perfect world that begs for toleration
Ban of worship sells
While reign of speech prevails
So millions can profess no shame
Meanwhile families die
Believers forced to hide
In the bloodstream called their faith
Population trained
Like sheep led to be slain
"Do what thou whilst sums up the law"
Modern concepts evolution process
Day by day in reverse mankind falls
How can it be
This imperfect world
Swallows every wind of doctination
Oh God will you not revive us again
That your people may rejoice in you
