Room 5a2

What does it mean to you

Rejected

Welcome, take a look

One pair, one hook

Living on a leash

The perfect way to conceal this

And I trusted you with my life

Within one night

You gave it all away, this way

I am all

I am your downfall

Cold grey womb

The liquid keeps the wound shut

Dark the bright

The perfect way to blur the light

No more

And

Back like once before

The backdoor
