Down where it's seamy and I get a little notion
To turn off and get dreamy with a magic potion
Now you can't see me because I'm showing no emotion
But if you want to be me

It's going to take some devotion (Baby)

Chorus:

I've been living to bad effect
I've been driven a nervous wreck
But I've been given a place to rest

Down near death

Down in the depths

Of the hidden world

You've got to get on my level

In the hidden world

All you young daredevils

All you boys and girls

You've got to get on my level

Down in the depths of the hidden world

Now you watch me stagger on to another stage

You know I get run ragged before I earn my wage

And like a hungry maggot you know I like my meat

And like a careless faggot I don't care where I eat

Chorus:

I've been living to bad effect

I've been driven a nervous wreck

But I've been given a place to rest

Down near death

Down in the depths

Of the hidden world

You've got to get on my level

In the hidden world

All you young daredevils

All you boys and girls

So come on to my level

In the hidden world

The forbidden world

In the hidden world

You've got to get on my level

In the hidden world

All you young daredevils

Down in the depths

Down where Jesus wept

In the hidden world
You've got to get on my level
In the hidden world
All you young daredevils
All you boys and girls
In the hidden world
The forbidden world
Down in the hidden world
