Album: La Chat Blue

As a tear fades away and the dawn dries a lover's eyes
No more tears, they're all gone Just believe it will always be

My heart in your hand knows that all this belongs to me and like the child here I stay while your heart sings inside of me

One dream of my live
One night in eternity
The wind whispered soft to me
And heaven stood still

One sigh of the dawn
Sweet instant of memory
One celestial rapsodie
And heaven stood still
