I can't forget the way you make me feel
Life is a just a broken dream
Where misery is real
Now I finally found the strength to go
I always thought I'd die without you
But little did I know

I can't believe the way you make me smile
When I need you most you leave
I guess that's just your style
Still you gave me hope when hope was lost
You found the man inside the boy
Man enough to bear the cost

I don't believe in you I can't believe in you
I won't believe in you How can I believe

I can't forget the words you said to me
Something else is calling you and
I'm not what you need
Still I learned to make it through the night
I'm sad to say the reason that
I'm holding on to life is spite

I don't believe in you I can't believe in you
I won't believe in you How can I believe

You comfort me like mother
Walked out on me like father
Lied to me like brother How can I believe
You cried for me like mother
Abandoned me like father
Take from me like brother How can I believe

I don't believe in you I can't believe in you
I won't believe in you How can I believe
I don't believe in you I can't believe in you
I won't believe in you How can I believe
