It's detrimental, the way it's got to be Confidential, deep inside of me It's dead and buried, it ended like it should It's dead and buried and over now for good

But you don't know, how it feels.
But you don't know, when it's real

Living life is funny, situations come and go
Now I'm bending over, lady luck is in control
Well I thought that I'd be famous I thought that I'd be rich
Now I'm bending over while lady luck makes me her bitch

It's really over, there's nothing left to love
It's really over, pushing came to shove
Thank God it's over, no one cares but you Thank God it's over and who cares if it's true

But you don't know, how it feels.
But you don't know, when it's real

Living life is funny, situations come and go
Now I'm bending over, lady luck is in control
Well I thought that I'd be famous I thought that I'd be
rich
Now I'm bending over while lady luck makes me her
bitch
